CHICAGO NEWS.

The Great Metropolis Again to be the Scene of a Big Strike.

CHICAGO, Oct. 8.—The 15,000 employees of the 21 packing establishments at the stock yards have almost unanimously resolved not to return to the packing district Monday.

The strike of the employees of the packing houses against a proposition to return to the ten hour working day began this morning. A committee of the 15,000 men employed by the Chicago Packing and Provision company, waited on the foreman of the works and demanded that the notices be taken down. The demand was refused, and a regiment of workmen left the building and were soon joined by 800 men employed in the Silver Horn works. A large force went in a body to the Armour works to advise the men there to stop work.

This afternoon a large body of additional workmen went on a strike at the stock yards of John Morwell, when a number of persons were hurt. The entire police force of the town of Lake has gone to the scene with two Pinkerton men, armed with rifles to quell the riot that broke out this afternoon.

KNIGHTS OF LABOR.

Their Convention Now Ready to Arrange for Work.

RICHMOND, Va., Oct. 8.—At the close of the session it was learned that most of the time had been occupied discussing the report of the committee on credentials concerning the St. Louis delegations. The question at issue was whether the delegates elected at the meeting held at 7 o'clock in the evening or at a subsequent meeting an hour later were regularly elected delegates and entitled to seats in the convention. The report presented to the convention and accepted by it was in favor of the delegates elected at the 8 o'clock meeting. The assembly is ready now to organize.

Washington.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 8.—The comptroller of the currency has called for a statement of the condition of National banks at the close of business Thursday, Oct. 7.

Gen. Jno. M. Corse has been appointed postmaster at Boston, Mass.

The president appointed Daniel Johnson postmaster at Ithaca, Mich., vice Robert Smith, suspended.

LA MASCOTTE.

More of Its Victims Die—The Coroner Jury's Verdict.

St. Louis, Oct. 8.—The following deaths occurred yesterday and among those injured in the La Mascotte explosion, making the total number thirty.

Marshall Wade, (colored) of Walnut Hill, Tenn.

Geo. Chatham, (colored) Paducah, Kentucky.

M. G. Sherer, Cincinnati.

George S. Davidson, the carpenter of the boat is in a very precarious condition and is not expected to live.

The coroner's jury returned a verdict exonerating the officers of the La Mascotte from all blame and severely criticized Captain Ebrugh of the Eagle, and recommended that his license be revoked because he refused to assist the burning La Mascotte.

The Anarchists Still Talking.

CHICAGO, Oct. 8.—The anarchists continued their speeches before the senate. Engel spoke first. He was followed by Fielden, and the court adjourned to 2 p. m.

MAJOR MUNSON.

He Speaks to a Great Democratic Audience for an Hour.

CORYDON, Oct. 8.—A brief notice had been given out that Hon. Robert W. Miers and Maj. Charles A. Munson would address the citizens of Corydon Wednesday night at the court house on the political issues of the day.

The honorable gentlemen were met at the depot and escorted to the Kintner house, where they were entertained until 7 o'clock in the evening amid the roar of cannon, martial music, etc. The speakers were then escorted to the court house, which was soon filled to its utmost capacity. Hon. John Mathes, in his usual happy way, came forward and in an eloquent little speech, introduced to the large audience Major Munson, who held them spell bound for one hour, showing the false pretenses of the republican party, and exposing the "trot-line" plank on temperance in the republican platform in a most satisfactory manner to all. Hon. Robert W. Miers was then introduced by Chairman Mathes, and proceeded to show the frauds perpetrated by the g. o. p. in a manner most effective, and invited all the boys to call and see him ere long at the office of the secretary of state.

EPISCOPALIANS.

The Proceedings of the Third Day at Their Chicago Conclave.

CHICAGO, Oct. 8.—The house of deputies of the Protestant Episcopal convention began the third day's session this morning. The president announced that he had appointed as a committee on hymns, Rev. Samuel Benedict, Southern Ohio; Rev. Zabraskie Gray, Wisconsin; Rev. Frederick Courtney, Massachusetts; George C. Thomas, Pennsylvania, and Henry Capper, Central Pennsylvania.

The committee on rules of order reported that the twenty-ninth rule of order should be read. It provides that no applause shall be permitted during the session of the house, and was adopted by a vote of 205 to 17.

Rev. Dr. Gray, of Tennessee, moved that in order to make order out of chaos the house grant permission to use for the next three years the first prayer book. This was seconded by Dr. Huntington, who moved it be laid on the table. Agreed to.

The house of deputies then adjourned, and being joined by the house of bishops resolved themselves into a board of missions. The secretary read the annual report of the secretary of the board of missions.

A Mayor Missing.

St. Louis, Oct. 8.—Ex-Mayor Henry A. Milletzer, of Belleville, Ill., about fifty years of age, disappeared Tuesday night and has not since been heard from. He has been inficted with softening of the brain.

AN OUTRAGE.

A Democratic Meeting Stoned by Republicans in Huntington County.

HUNTINGTON, Oct. 8.—Hon. R. C. Pendleton, of Indianapolis, and O. W. Whitelock, a candidate for representative of Huntington county, held a democratic meeting at Macedonia, Union township, last evening. While Mr. Pendleton was engaged in his address, some sneaking, cowardly villain cast a stone through the window, which struck one of the auditors, inflicting a dangerous wound on the head. Such manifestations only disclose the spirit of intolerance practiced by some of the unscrupulous followers of republicanism in Huntington county. Mr. Pendleton went to Fort Wayne and proposes to again return to hunt the villain down.

Earthquakes.

CHARLESTON, Oct. 8.—There were three more earthquake shocks at Summerville.

NEBRASKA.

The Democrats Put a Full State Ticket in the Field Out There.

LINCOLN, Neb., Oct. 8.—The democratic state convention nominated for governor, Jas. F. North; for lieutenant governor, C. B. Bolby; secretary of state, Richard Thompson; state treasurer, J. F. Hale; auditor of state, Thomas E. Binger; attorney general, W. L. Green; land commissioner, Thomas W. Smith; superintendent of public instruction, L. A. Cooley.

Weather Indications.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 8.—The weather indications are as follows:

Kentucky, fair weather, nearly stationary temperature.

Ohio, fair weather, nearly stationary temperature.

Indiana, fair weather and nearly stationary temperature.

Michigan, fair weather, slight changes in temperature.

Senator Pike Dead.

Boston, Oct. 8.—United States Senator Austin F. Pike died suddenly at Franklin Falls, N. Y., to-day.

Perry Lukens is now at Kansas City and is soliciting advertisements for Mr. W. R. Nelson's Star. Mr. Lukens will make his home in Kansas City.

LOCAL CHAT.

News Picked up in the Surrounding Villages.

Treasurer Johnson, of the state fair at Indianapolis, says that the entire receipts will be something over $25,000, $4,000 more than last year, and the largest amount taken in, probably, since the organization of the state board. It is noted that during the entire fair, there has not been reported a single case of pocket picking or robbery on the grounds, while last year there were fifty or more. In the $25,000 taken in was found only $3 in counterfeit money—a two and one half dollar "gold" and a fifty cent lead piece.

Beginning with the year 1854 Judge Wm. S. Holman has made fourteen races for congress. In each of these contests he ran ahead of the state ticket—34 votes in 1864, 98 in '68, 9 in '70, 121 in '72, 52 in '76, 191 in '78, 617 in '79, 167 in '82, 1,245 in '84, 379 in '86, 424 in '88, 214 in '90, 330 in '92, and 191 in '94. A man who has been in public life for so many years, and yet runs 191 ahead of Thomas A. Hendricks, 616 ahead of Col. Norman Eddy, 379 ahead of Blue Jeans Williams, 215 ahead of Franklin Landers, and 191 ahead of Isaac P. Gray, must have a very strong hold upon the affections of his constituents.

At Lafayette, as John Short, whose brother Bill was, a few weeks ago, sent to the northern penitentiary for a series of robberies, was going to the depot to take a train for Chicago, he was nabbed by Lieutenant Renard, of the police, and his wooden leg taken off. In it were found secreted a fine gold watch, a lady's costly necklace, three pairs of fine bracelets, five diamond rings, with other articles of jewelry and ornaments to the value of $1,500. These are supposed to be the goods his brother Bill stole this summer from the residence of Fred Shockey, and other parties, and which Bill, when the police were after him, turned over to John.

Lucius B. Swift, who has been making investigations of federal civil service in Indiana, made his report public yesterday. Special attention is paid to the Indianapolis postoffice, and he charges that Mr. Jones has never intended to honestly enforce the civil service laws; that while some of the appointees are good, though inexperienced, "there is a lot of party workers, with a considerable contingent of low ward politicians, and a few are strikingly illiterate." Mr. Swift makes an attempt to prove the comparative inefficiency of the postal service in Indianapolis. Although Mr. Jones has had the force of carriers increased, there has been an increase in the number of letters advertised as compared with the same months in former years. Of the second-class postmasters in Indiana Mr. Swift finds fifteen of sixteen have been succeeded by democrats, and the number of employees have been increased. He further finds that in the internal revenue service removals have been made by the wholesale. Of fifty-six former incumbents, fifty-three have been succeeded by democrats. In conclusion, Mr. Swift says that the president's promise that the law should be enforced has been evaded; that the appointees to office have manipulated the local party machine, and that places have been given as booty by congressmen without regard to fitness.

Business Failures.

New York, Oct. 8.—Business failures for the last seven days in the United States, 167; in Canada, 23.

Minister Jackson.

CITY OF MEXICO, Oct. 9.—General Jackson presented his letter of recall to President Diaz yesterday and last night he left for the United States.

Christian Soest and Emma Schmidt, Heinrich F. D. Thiele and Caroline C. L. Menzing, John Christian Schaefer and Caroline Mina Thiele, Stephen Campbell and Dora Durbin have been licensed to wed.

ATONEMENT DAY.

The Hebrews to Observe One of Their Most Sacred Holidays.

The day of atonement begins this evening at sundown and continues until sundown Saturday evening. It is the most generally observed day by the Israelites of any in the entire year. The day is set apart by the Bible, the Old Testament, for the atonement of sins and is ordered as a day of fasting and prayer. Orthodox Israelites observe the day strictly by abstaining from food, water or liquids of any kind for the twenty-four hours. The so-called reform Israelites, or believers in the modern school of religion, do not observe the fast as strictly. Other observances of the day are left to the individuals and he may do whatever his conscience dictates. In Europe the day is more rigidly observed than in America, where the reform doctrines are most widely held. Business houses will close for the day, with perhaps few exceptions.

Pacing Horse Killed.

WARREN, Ind., Oct. 5.—During the pacing race at the tri-county fair in North Manchester, to-day, Sandy Poe, driven by Thomas Turner, collided with Hoosier Sam, driven by Jerome Wilcox. The sulkeys were wrecked and both men thrown several feet. Hoosier Sam was instantly killed. The animal was a valuable one, having a pacing record of 2:22, and was owned by Wilcox, of Peru. The drivers were not seriously hurt.

HI! THERE, CAPTAIN.

The Garrett Clipper and Butler Review Fly the Lowry Banner and Support Him Squarely.

The Gazette and other republican papers have announced with a great flourish of trumpets that the Garrett Clipper and Butler Review, together with a few less important democratic papers, were opposing Judge Lowry. The fondest republican hopes decay and this week the Garrett Clipper hoists the name of our next congressman, Judge Robert Lowry. It says:

"It's a contest between the two parties, not individuals."—Gov. Gray.

Next week we will explain why we have made "a change of hearts." Being under the weather, with other matters interfering, we are not in a position to sling the faber this week.

We notice bills announcing public meetings by Hon. D. D. Moody, of Auburn.

Let every democrat go a straight ticket. The republicans "hug" us now, but after the election they'll have no use for any of us.

This is the time of year, when the leaves begin to fall, and "independent" newspapers of the baser sort, after a visit of the chairman of the finance committee, shed the thin disguise of non-partisanship and come out full fledged republican organs.

We are informed that the state and county central committees have invited W. H. Dills to enter the campaign and make speeches to his party. He has consented to look after the interests of the party in this county and make ten or twelve speeches if his court business will permit.

Although Gov. Gray did not mention Lowry in his speech, last Saturday, he presented some very strong arguments why democrats should vote the straight ticket. While Lowry's election is of some interest to himself, of course, it is of a great deal more importance to the party, its principles and future success, than any one else. It is acknowledged by Stanley advocates that Henry C. Stanley will not, and cannot be successful, consequently the only decision we can arrive at is—shall our next congressman be a democrat or a republican.

THE BUTLER REVIEW.

The Butler Review also takes up the fight for Hon. Robert Lowry and is now flying his name at the mast head. One by one the props fall away from the tottering structures erected by the kickers and when the ideas of November are here the opposition will be confined to very narrow limits.

Ligonier Banner.

The congressional fight in this district is now only a question as to the size of Lowry's majority. Some republicans place it as high as 3,000, more than two years ago.

THE DIAMOND.

The National League Championship Sure to Go to Chicago.

To-morrow ends the schedule for games to be played in the National league and not a little speculation is indulged in as to the possible result. The Chicagoes have two games to play with Boston, with a total of 89 won and 33 lost, while the Detroitis have four games with the Philadelphia, with a total of 86 won and 34 lost. The result is almost certain to be in favor of Chicago, but if they should lose one game to Boston, and Detroit should be fortunate enough to win all four games from Philadelphia, the end would be a tie, or should Detroit lose one game to-day and Chicago win, the white stockings will carry the banner.

LOCAL LINES.

Joseph Todd and Frank Fee were at Indianapolis yesterday.

Mr. Carl P. Swain, the pleasant associated press reporter at the Western Union, is at home from his annual vacation.

The Bluffton Banner says: Mr. J. V. McTagree, of Fort Wayne, was in the city last Saturday.—Calvin Karns, wife and daughter, of Fort Wayne, were in the city during the past week visiting relatives.

The remains of James L. Flinn will arrive this evening. The funeral will take place from the residence of his mother, 106 Williams street, Sunday afternoon at 1 o'clock. Interment at Prairie Grove chapel.

An excursion under the auspices of the Catholic Knights of America will go to Valparaiso on Sunday morning, Oct. 17, the train leaving the south depot at 6 a. m. The fare for the round trip has been placed at $2. Tickets can be had of any of the members.

The republicans continue to personally abuse and vilify Judge Lowry. Their ill-bred methods will not influence honest people, nor will they elevate the character of his accusers in the eyes of fair minded people. Judge Lowry is too well known and is with us too often to believe the brutal assertions of the republicans. Mudslinging will increase Judge Lowry's majority, as certain as sunshine.

MORE ROBBERIES.

An Attempt to Burglarize a Grocery and a Horse Jockey Held Up for His Money.

Last night four men attempted to break into the grocery store of Celestin J. Jourdan, out on the Maumee road. The work of the thieves was heard by a Mr. Cantid, who lives above the grocery. He raised a window and asked what was wanted.

"None of your d—d business; are you a detective?" was the prompt reply. Mr. Cantid fired at the fellows, just as the officers approached.

E. McArthur, a horse trader who makes his home with Tom Hunt, drove towards Roanoke this morning, via the Illinois road. Just as he crossed the Pittsburg road, west of here, two men approached and asked him for a ride. He responded to their request and was startled when he arrived at the first forest to find a pistol and razor pulled on him. They made him drive into the woods and then they robbed him of $4.35, all the money he had. Jake Baltes drove along and the fleeced horse trader related his experience without much relief, as Mr. Baltes did not care to encounter the fleeing rascals.

DEMOCRATIC DOINGS.

How the Work Progresses and the Great Meetings Booked for the Cause.

The democratic party is getting right into line, and voters are utterly dismayed and disgusted with republican hypocrisy and pretense. Every where the opposition is unmasked and held up to ridicule when paid attorneys and their hirelings go out labeled "The People."

The Hon. J. M. Barrett and Mr. John Rodabaugh address the people of Washington township at Scarlett's school house to-night, and these big meetings are booked for to-morrow evening:

Maysville, speakers, Col. I. B. McDonald and Hon. J. M. Barrett, Saturday, October 9, 7:30 p. m.

Hoagland, speakers, Hon. B. F. Ibach and Judge S. M. Hensch, Saturday, October 9, 7:30 p. m.

Center school house, Milan township, speakers, W. H. Shambaugh and C. M. Dawson, Saturday, October 9, 7:30 p. m.

Stirling's school house, Perry township, speakers, J. M. Robinson, esq., and J. R. Bittering, Saturday, October 9, 7:30 p. m.

Monroeville, speaker, Hon. R. C. Bell, Saturday, October 9, 7:30 p. m.

The state central committee has booked Hon. J. E. McDonald and Hon. R. C. Bell for the following meetings in this district:

Columbia City, Whitney county, October 11, evening.

Churubusco, Whitley county, October 11, evening.

Butler, Dekalb county, October 12.

Waterloo, Dekalb county, October 12, evening.

Kendallville, Noble county, October 13.

Garrett, Dekalb county, October 13, evening.

INDIANA is good for 10,000 democratic majority.

The election will occur three weeks from next Tuesday.

The republicans are running this campaign on a mere sham.

The cause of labor never did and never will get relief or solace from the republican party or Senator Harrison. They are not built that way.

The republican county convention wrenched an iron clad pledge from every legislative candidate to support their party and Monopolist Ben Harrison. Democrats, what do you say to that exhibition of love for laboring men.

THIRTY-THREE more union soldiers are employed in the pension bureau under a democratic administration than were to be found there under the republicans. This is enough to quiet even Ben Harrison's apprehensions as to the old flag.

The civil service bill, commonly known as the "Pendleton bill," was written by George William Curtis, who submitted it to Senator Dawes and Edmunds, the latter of whom persuaded Senator Pendleton to offer it as his own.

In 1872 Senator Sherman was an honest tariff reformer. The Senator Sherman of to-day is not himself. The poison of the presidential bee has got into his system, and nothing by a national convention or a presidential election will help him.

The republicans are endeavoring to hide their iniquity and brazen party bigotry under the "People's" mask. Outside of politics men would not tolerate such traitors, who prate about principle, reform, etc., and then deny their political faith simply to enhance their chances of victory and appease their hunger for office.

In their private circulars asking assistance and urging their workers to their utmost efforts, the republicans frankly admit that unless Indiana is carried for them this year their chances in 1888 are as good as lost. This is an admission they would not make were they not thoroughly alarmed. The nine thousand democratic voters in Allen county should take this proposition into thoughtful consideration.

THE United States senate is the last fraction of political power left the republicans in the administration of national affairs. The indications are that Connecticut and New Jersey will elect two democrats, thus taking away from the republicans that number of votes in the senate. A hard fight will be made for another democratic senator in New York state, which, if successful, will still further reduce the republican majority. Indiana will elect a legislature that will send a democrat to the senate in place of General Benjamin Harrison, if the democrats do their whole duty. So one by one the roses will fall and fade away.

It is painful to learn that Senator Sherman does not approve of any of the acts of the present administration. He tells his hearers in Ohio that the democratic party is utterly unworthy to be entrusted with the affairs of government, and that the republican party is the only one able to cope with national questions as they arise. The plaintive and reproachful tone of his addresses leads to the inference that Senator Sherman thinks he might have done better had he been in President Cleveland's place. The melancholy fact remains, however, that he was chosen, and in all probability that he will never be given the opportunity of making the experiment. It is not strange that he should manifest a disgruntled spirit under the circumstances.

A FABLE.

Long ago in the year 1886 there lived an old party called Jefferson who owned and cultivated a fine estate called "Allen." Now Allen was a splendidly cultivated estate, abounding in fine bridges, elegant houses, good roads and large work shops, and the old party called Jefferson had for many years been improving his estate to the extent of the revenue he derived from it, so as to make it both pleasant and profitable for his descendants to live in. There was upon a remote corner of this estate a young presumptuous lawyer, called Republican, who had often tried to persuade old Jefferson to let him manage the estate, promising that he would well take care of Jefferson as long as he lived. At last Jefferson pretended that he would hand over the management of the estate to Republican, but this was only a pretense, yet Republican unwisely boasted thereof before he got full possession.

Toward the close of the day, as the Old Party was smoking his pipe, Young Republican came up and said, "Old Party, that is a disgusting habit; I want you to quit it." Old Party said nothing, but went to the cupboard to take a nip of liquor, when Young Republican emboldened by the Old Party's silence, again said: "Say, you Old Party, you must stop off on drinking. When I am master here I will have none of it." The Old Party pityingly eyed the youngster and inquired if he might have a little cold chicken for supper, when the Young Party foolishly rejoined: "Cold chicken is too expensive; codfish is good enough for you." The Old Party, as it drew nigh on to November 4, 1886, asked if he could sleep in his house again, whereupon Republican exclaimed, "You can sleep on the floor to-night, but I give you warning to clear out in the morning." As young Republican said this it was high noon the hour of closing the polls on November 4, 1886, old Jefferson thereupon arose, seized that young party by the collar, made his heels break his neck, threw him over the fence into outer darkness, and closed the door of Allen county against him forever—for great indeed was the strength remaining in that old arm.

Moral—Don't commence on the Old Party too soon in Allen.

COL. I. B. McDONALD

Pays His Respects to Hon. T. W. Blair and Accepts His Challenge.

Fort Wayne, Ind., Oct. 4.

Col. I. B. McDonald, Ring Candidate for Joint Senator:

DEAR SIR—Believing that the people should be fully informed of your false position in defending the large defalcation in the state treasury, and the outrageous proceedings of the state legislature and the management of the state institutions, and denying the rights of workmen to be represented in our law-making bodies, I respectfully challenge you to meet me in joint discussion of the issues before the people, at such times and places as the respective central committees of the counties of Allen and Whitley may arrange. I desire a fair, straightforward answer to this end at your earliest convenience.

Very respectfully yours,

T. W. BLAIR,

People's Candidate for Joint Senator Allen and Whitley counties.

Fort Wayne, Ind., Oct. 8 '86.

Thomas W. Blair, Esq., Republican Candidate for Joint Senator, Fort Wayne, Ind.:

SIR—I am in receipt of your very discourteous letter of the 4th inst. I am constrained, at least for the present, not to take the proper notice of the insolence contained therein, leaving that duty to some future time and place. As the DEMOCRATIC CANDIDATE FOR JOINT SENATOR I shall be pleased to be on hand promptly at such times and places as shall be arranged by Hon. Charles McCulloch, chairman of the Allen county democratic central committee.

After Diphtheria.

Diphtheria is a terrible disease; requiring the greatest medical skill to effect a complete cure. Even when its power is broken, it clings to the patient with great persistency, and often leaves the system poisoned and prostrated. Just here Hood's Sarsaparilla does a vast amount of good, expelling impurities from the blood, giving it richness and vitality, while it renovates and strengthens the system.

Mahogany, Cherry, Maple, Birch, Oak And Ash

Bed-room Suits!

Don't have all your Bed Room Suits of any one wood. Your Furniture will not be so pleasing to you. A variety of woods will make each more attractive. If you have one room Walnut, put another into Mahogany, Cherry, Oak or Ash.

Antique Oak or White Ash Bed Room Suits make the prettiest woods for a Bed Room trimmed in blue. Walnut should not be used.

The Foster Furniture and Carpet Co., carry the only full line in the city of Bed Room Suits, in all the different kinds of wood. They have, set up, and ready for inspection, a greater number of suits than all other Fort Wayne stores combined.

Mantle

Cabinets.

Nothing adds so much to the elegant appearance of a parlor as one of these beautiful Over Mantles, or Cabinets with glasses. Step into our store and see them. They can be placed upon any mantle in your house without expense, except the cost of the Cabinet.

PARLOR SUITS

Bear in mind that we manufacture our own Parlor Suits, and know in what manner they are made. Years ago, we found out, from thorough experience, that suits bought by merchants ready made, are simply thrown together by boys and will not give satisfaction.

Election of Officers.

At the annual meeting held last evening at the Congregational church the following gentlemen were elected:

Deacon—Nathaniel E. Fitch.
Clerk—O. G. Smith.
Treasurer—S. J. Rodabaugh.

Trustee—Valentine Gutermuth.
A satisfactory report was received from the treasurer, very encouraging to the society. Starting with the new pastor, with great prospects of spiritual and temporal growth, the church looks forward to increasing usefulness.

It may save your life, for it cures your cold and cough. Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup. Price 25 cents.

Mr. Robert Sutcliffe, late of Birmingham, England, now a resident of Baltimore, claims:—"For neuralgia Salivation Oil is worth its weight in gold."

Base Burners

The Garland in five different styles makes the handsomest and most complete line of Coal Heating Stoves ever displayed. This store has made a reputation for itself, and there are more of them being made and sold than any other stove which has been upon the market. The same Grates and Fire Pots are used through the entire line from the smallest to the largest Stove, which is a great advantage to the purchaser, and if you select a stove for $20 you have just as good an article and as many conveniences as one for $40. The difference exists in style and finish. Everyone is desirous to get a good article at the lowest possible price, and with the Garland you can make no mistake.

THOMSON'S PATENT

GLOVE FITTING

ARE STILL TRIUMPHANT!

For fifteen years, they have steadily gained in favor, and with sales constantly increasing have become the most popular corset throughout the United States.
 The G quality is warranted to wear twice as long as ordinary Corsets. We have lately introduced the G and R-H grades with Extra long Waists, and we can furnish them when referred.
 Highest awards from all the World's great Fairs. The last medal received is for First Degree of Merit, from the late Exposition held at New Orleans.
 While scores of patents have been found worthless, the principles of the Glove-Fitting have proved invaluable.
 Retailers are authorized to refund money, if on examination, these Corsets do not prove as represented. For sale everywhere.
 Catalogue free on application.

FOR GOVERNOR OF MINNESOTA.
A. R. McMillan—A Notable Convention. Notable Men—Notable Results.
 The recent Republican convention held in the exposition rink, St. Paul, Minn., was notable in many ways. It resulted in the nomination of A. R. McMillan for governor.

A. R. McMILLAN.
 A fusion was brought about with the Farmers' Alliance, Patrons of Husbandry, Knights of Labor and trade assemblies resulting in a platform of which the following is a synopsis:
 The warehouse and railroad laws should be amended to secure an open and free market for the products of the soil. Railroads, where it can legally be done, should be restrained from holding free lands exempt from taxation. Pledges the party to secure laws prohibiting the further use of watered stock, to amend the tax law so that taxpayers shall not lose property through errors of officers, to prohibit railroad companies from furnishing passes to legislators, to do all municipal work by the day and not by contract, to pay women same as men for the same labor, and to prohibit child labor. Prison labor is opposed, and arbitration is defended. Legislation is favored to renew the free coinage of silver, and to revise the tariff so that taxation on the necessities of life may be reduced.
 The representative of The Farmers' Alliance at this convention was Ignatius Donnelly, who is a big figure anywhere and well known as an author.

IGNATIUS DONNELLY.
 Ignatius Donnelly carries into the literature the same methods that he uses in politics, and woe to the theory or author that comes across his path. At his home he is dubbed "Pugnacious" Donnelly. He is a Philadelphian by birth and so was his mother, though his father was an Irishman. He is now 55 and well preserved. He was admitted to the bar in 1853 and went to St. Paul, Minn., in 1856. Three years later he was elected lieutenant governor of that state and re-elected in 1862. He was in congress from 1862 till 1868. He stamped the west for Horace Greeley in 1872. He was elected a state senator in 1873. His best known works are "Atlantic" and "Ragnarok".
 He is about to publish "a key to a cipher narrative hidden in the first folio edition of Shakespeare's plays" which he claims to have discovered, and which will prove not only that Francis Bacon was the author of plays attributed to Shakespeare but will also give the motives which compelled Bacon to publish the plays in Shakespeare's name. On the correctness of the conclusions as to the Baconian authorship of these plays Mr. Donnelly stakes his reputation. The book is likely to create a literary cyclone when it appears, but Ignatius is at home in cyclones.
 Another notable result of this convention was the appearance of The Northwestern Chronicle as a supporter of the Republican ticket. This paper has heretofore stood aloof from politics, and is said to represent the views of the Roman Catholic Bishop Ireland. A portion of its editorial will bear reproducing.
 There can be no question as to where the friends of temperance, of law and order, of sobriety, and of good government must take their stand this fall with McMillan as the nominee of the party pledged to high license and the control of the liquor traffic. We have written and worked against rum for so long, and we would be untrue to ourselves, untrue to the principles we proclaim, did we not declare ourselves strongly in favor of the party that pledges itself to the measures we desire to see enforced.

THE TAYLOR BROTHERS' CANVASS.
 One of the Most Remarkable Campaigns in American Political History.
 The campaign of Robert L. and Alfred A. Taylor, brothers, but rival candidates for the governorship of Tennessee, will become notably historical. When many of the national issues that we have now before the country are forgotten, the Taylor brothers' campaign in Tennessee will be retained in political reminiscence. A novel feature of this fraternal canvass is the entire absence of personal bitterness between the candidates, who follow one another as speakers to the same audiences. But the part the violin plays in the campaign is the episode that will be longest remembered. Robert Taylor it will be remembered "hid himself into congress" a few years ago, but it was Alfred, the Republican brother, that introduced music into the present contest. His voice having failed him he became alarmed that Robert would get ahead of him on the stump, so he gave the audience a tune on the violin. To offset this Robert took to kissing all the babies he could find, which proving to be a disagreeable contract at best he abandoned it for the more congenial violin playing.

FIDDLING FOR VOTES.
 It is indeed a quaint sight to see these two stalwart men "fiddling" before audiences in true minstrel style, just to prove their fitness for office, but to win the affections of the voters. In a few weeks this buffoonery will be laid aside, and one of them will be the administrator of a territory nearly as large as that of England.

BIRMINGHAM, ALABAMA.
 The Marvelous Growth of a Southern City.
 The growth of the "iron metropolis of the south," as Birmingham, Ala., is called, is one of the most marvelous developments of the "new south."

THE FIRST HOUSE.
 The oldest house in Birmingham dates from 1871. In 1880 the population according to the census was 4,500. It is now over 22,000, and the tax valuation of the property is about $18,000,000. The reason for this magic growth is due to the location of the city. Red mountain, on the side of which the city rests, is a solid mass of ore, and supported on one side by the Warrior and on the other by the Cahaba coalfields, with limestone and fire clay lying between, one might imagine that here Vulcan had chosen his home. A solid mountain of iron ore—a huge vein twenty-four feet thick cropping out for 100 miles along the mountain and flanked on either side by mile after mile of splendid coal—it is something unprecedented in the history of iron manufacture.

THE MINERAL EXHIBITION BUILDING.
 The confidence with which the citizens of this youthful city look toward its prosperity is evidenced by the public buildings, among which is a building where the mineral products of the region may be exhibited, studied and discussed. A recent correspondent says of the city: "One hundred and seventy-five thousand dollars per month is paid to labor by infantile industries only; stoves, piping, steam engines, foundry outfits, furnace plants, etc., are shipped hence 1,000 miles; chain factories and iron bridge factories, flour mills, furniture factories, cotton press factories and cotton gin factories are springing up. From the peaks overlooking this valley the philosophic inquirer may observe hurrying throngs of workmen grading and paving wide streets constantly encroaching on the surrounding farms; and along their lines mechanics build, one after another, great temples of trade, halls of education, church spires which kiss the clouds, beautiful homes, and ever leave the end of one day overhanging with unfinished work for the next. Over $7,000,000 are invested in the great industries of the place, and no less than twenty-one iron furnaces are now either in active operation or about to begin work."
 The combination, proportion and process in preparing Hood's Sarsaparilla are peculiar to this medicine and unknown to others.
 The grand council R. and A. M. and the grand chapter of Royal Ach. Masons will meet at Indianapolis the 19th and 20th inst.

A. C. F. Weichman attended the Kendallville fair.

Supt. and Mrs. P. S. O'Rourke attended the Kendallville fair yesterday.

Rev. Geo. G. Mitchell, of Bluffton, was tendered a warm welcome by his Indianapolis congregation.

P. S. O'Rourke will go to New York next Monday to attend the meeting of the railroad superintendents.

The new elevators of H. G. Thayer & Co., on the Wabash railway, will be painted with white and trimmed in red.

The Jacobs shoe store will be closed on Saturday until 6 o'clock on account of holiday. Special cheap sale Saturday evening.

In the Wabash railroad telegraph system there are 27,000 miles of wire, and to operate the lines, batteries having an aggregate of 7,050 cells are required.

The eighth annual reunion of the 44th regiment, Indiana volunteers, will be held in Sion S. Bass G. A. R. Hall, at Fort Wayne, Wednesday, Oct. 13, 1886.

The beautiful moonlight nights that we are now having gives the young dude a chance to promenade with some other fellow's best girl, and, as it is too cold for ice cream and too early for oyster stews, the dude's empty pocket-book causes him no embarrassment when they pass a restaurant.

The Catholics of northern Indiana have for three days past been holding special meetings at Peru. Over eight hundred persons have received the holy communion. Sermons were delivered by Fathers Campeon, of Logansport; Widan, of New Haven; Messman, of Fort Wayne; Moench, of Plymouth, and Allemond, of Columbia City. The meetings closed last night.

Dr. Barnett went to Waterloo yesterday to see the races.

To-morrow is pay day at Bass and Murray's foundries.

There was another big excursion to the Eaton gas well last night.

Henry Henschen, of Coombs & Co.'s hardware store, is seriously ill.

Mrs. Clark, of Andover, Mass., is visiting her daughter, Mrs. A. J. Lang.

Mr. and Mrs. Butler, of Pittsburg, are in the city visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Compere.

Mr. J. B. Neizer, the popular and tireless democratic candidate for county auditor, is suffering from rheumatism, but will soon be out again.

L. Bireley has taken out a permit to move his frame house from lot 1, William's addition, to lot 1, Brandriff and Ayer's addition, to cost $700.

The body of W. S. McKinnie, the man killed Wednesday night at the Nickel Plate bridge, was forwarded last night to Conneaut Lake, Pa., for burial.

Women of Fort Wayne are selling the "Red Letter Soap" to private families at Garrett and give the merchants who handle it the advantage of collecting the duties.

To-morrow evening the Warsaw Summer Resort Association will hold an electric light jollification on Center lake. The lake will be brilliantly illuminated by electricity and there will be a procession on water.

A Valentine correspondent says: "Mrs. Wm. Hobson and family went to Fort Wayne last week, and will make that place their home.—Miss Mattie McKibben returned from Fort Wayne, last week, and will stay at home for awhile on account of her health."

The Warsaw Union says: "Fred Eekert, a prominent Fort Wayne business man, was in the city Monday. The writer remembers Mr. Eekert in former years when he came to the Summit City, almost empty handed. He is now among the most substantial and wealthy citizens, counting his wealth by a hundred thousand or more."

Mr. Geo. Gardiner, a prosperous farmer of Wayne county, Ohio, made THE SENTINEL a call this morning. Mr. Gardiner formerly lived at Bluffton, for which place he is en route to-day. He has been making a tour of Kansas with a view of permanently locating there. In the west he met many former Indians, among them being Wm. Dean, at one time treasurer of Wells county, who is now a prominent citizen of the flourishing town of Wichita, Kansas.

Conductor Hoyt, of the Wabash, the other day found in one of the cars on his train a woman's hand satchel containing a false hair switch, a stocking and a hair-pin. He turned in the property and yesterday it was claimed by a woman of African descent, who had lost it while returning from a colored camp meeting near Lafayette. The other railroad boys feared that the possession of the lock of hair placed the good-looking conductor under a cloud of suspicion, but he has proven his innocence.

Mr. Harvey Wilber, of Detroit, was in the city yesterday.

J. C. Peltier returned from a convention of undertakers at Cleveland, this noon.

Judge Edward O'Rourke rendered judgment for $213.88 against Brent S. Tolan.

Frank Falker is arranging his place of business for a cigar store and sample room.

Peter Miller sues John J. Waters on a note for $400. Spencer & Jenkinson are his attorneys.

The Dougherty-Rogers case, brought here from Bluffton, has been appealed to the superior court.

Mr. Day, a member of the Wabash bridge gang, was hurt yesterday by a big timber falling on him.

The annual meeting of the ladies of the Congregational church will be held in the vestry of the church at 3 p. m. to-morrow.

Charles Nathan sues Dan Hutzell, the Nebraska saloon man, for $150, and Falk & Lamley sue him for $250. Spencer & Jenkinson filed the papers.

Mrs. Nora Gause, formerly of this city, has accepted a position on the editorial staff of the Chicago Humane Journal and will shortly assume her duties.

In the circuit court Catherine Blumm sues Henry Blumm for a divorce and $2,500 alimony; John C. Guiff sues Julius Guiff et al. on a note and mortgage for $400.

Mr. John Trentman, who had been in attendance at his father's funeral, has returned to his home at Minneapolis. He is engaged in the hotel business at that place.

Henry P. Acker, business manager of Le Grands Patent Rights company, is in the city to-day. This company is great and will appear at the Temple next Friday and Saturday.

The Warsaw Union says: "We are informed that Mr. Centlivre, the big Fort Wayne brewer, contemplates establishing a beer ware house and bottling establishment in this city."

J. B. Reitz, brother-in-law of the late Charles F. Waltemuth, will accompany from Los Angeles, Cal., the remains of the deceased gentleman. Mr. Waltemuth's life was insured for $5,000.

Mathias Mettler, an old and well known citizen, died of consumption at his home on Spy Run avenue, last night. His funeral occurs Monday morning at 9 o'clock, from the cathedral.

The invitations are out for the wedding of Miss Cassie, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles McNair, to Geo. W. Clark, of Chicago. The ceremony will take place on Wednesday evening, October 20th, at 7 o'clock, at the residence of the bride's parents.

The Latest.

During the minstrel entertainment at the Temple Wednesday evening a singular occurrence took place. During the double clog dance a telegraph operator remarked the resemblance of the sounds to those of his telegraph instrument, and after listening a few moments he discovered that the dancers were ticking off the sentence, "Buy your shoes at Vordermark's."

The firm of Lamb and Mook has been dissolved and is succeeded by Lamb & Co., who will be pleased to welcome their customers at 244 Calhoun street, Fort Wayne.

PRICE THREE CENTS

CHICAGO NEWS.

The Great Metropolis Again to be the Scene of a Big Strike.

Chicago, Oct. 8.—The 15,000 employees of the 21 packing establishments at the stock yards have almost unanimously resolved not to return to the packing district Monday.

The strike of the employees of the packing houses against a proposition to return to the ten hour working day began this morning. A committee of the 15,000 men employed by the Chicago Packing and Provision company, waited on the foreman of the works and demanded that the notices be taken down. The demand was refused, and a regiment of workmen left the building and were soon joined by 500 men employed in the Silver Horn works. A large force went in a body to the Armour works to advise the men there to stop work. This afternoon a large body of additional workmen went on a strike at the stock yards of John Morwell, when a number of persons were hurt. The entire police force of the town of Lake has gone to the scene with two Platoon men, armed with rifles to quell the riot that broke out this afternoon.

KNIGHTS OF LABOR.

Their Convention Now Ready to Arrange for Work.

Romson, Va., Oct. 8.—At the close of the session it was learned that most of the time had been occupied discussing the report of the committee on credentials concerning the St. Louis delegates. The question at issue was whether the delegates elected at the meeting held at 7 o'clock in the evening or at a subsequent meeting an hour later were regularly elected delegates and entitled to seats in the convention. The report presented to the convention and accepted by it was in favor of the delegates elected at the 8 o'clock meeting. The assembly is ready now to organize.

Washington.

Washington, Oct. 8.—The comptroller of the currency has called for a statement of the condition of National banks at the close of business Thursday, Oct. 7.

Gen. Jno. M. Corse has been appointed postmaster at Boston, Mass. The president appointed Daniel Johnson postmaster at Tibaca, Minn., vice Robert Smith, suspended.

LA MASCOITE.

More of Its Victims Die—The Coroner Juries Verdict.

St. Louis, Oct. 8.—The following deaths occurred yesterday and among those injured in the LaMascoite explosion, making the total number thirty. Marshall Wade, (colored) of Walnut Hill, Tenn.

Geo. Chatham, (colored) Paducah, Kentucky.

M. G. Sherer, Cincinnati. George S. Davidson, the carpenter of the boat is in a very precarious condition and is not expected to live.

The coroner's jury returned a verdict exonerating the officers of the LaMascoite from all blame and severely criticized Captain Blough of the Eagle, and recommended that his license be revoked because he refused to assist the burning LaMascoite.

The Anarchists Still Talking.

Chicago, Oct. 8.—The anarchists continued their speeches before the sentence. Engel spoke first. He was followed by Fielden, and the court adjourned to 2 p. m.

MAJOR MUNSON.

He Speaks to a Great Democratic Audience for an Hour.

Cokroon, Oct. 8.—A brief notice had been given out that Hon. Robert W. Miers and Maj. Charles A. Munson would address the citizens of Corydon Wednesday night at the court house on the political issues of the day.

The honorable gentlemen were met at the depot and escorted to the Kintner house, where they were entertained until 7 o'clock in the evening amid the roaring of cannon, martial music, etc. The speakers were then escorted to the court house, which was soon filled to its utmost capacity. Hon. John Matheo, in his usual happy way, came forward and in an eloquent little speech, introduced to the large audience Major Munson, who held them spell bound for one hour, showing the false pretenses of the republican party, and exposing the "iron-line" plank on temperance in the republican platform in a most satisfactory manner to all. Hon. Robert W. Miers was then introduced by Chairman Matheo, and proceeded to show the frauds perpetrated by the g. o. p. in a manner most effective, and invited all the boys to call and see him as long as the office of the secretary of state.

EPISCOPALIANS.

The Proceedings of the Third Day at Their Chicago Conclave.

Chicago, Oct. 8.—The house of deputies of the Protestant Episcopal convention began the third day's session this morning. The president announced that he had appointed as a committee on hymns, Rev. Samuel Beaudiot, South-east Ohio; Rev. Zabraskie Gray, Wisconsin; Rev. Frederick Courtney, Massachusetts; George O. Thomas, Pennsylvania; and Henry Capper, Central Pennsylvania.

The committee on rules of order reported that the twenty-ninth rule of order should be read. It provides that no applause shall be permitted during the session of the house, and was adopted by a vote of 205 to 17.

Rev. Dr. Gray, of Tennessee, moved that in order to make order out of chaos the house grant permission to use for the next three years the first prayer book. This was seconded by Dr. Huntington, who moved it be laid on the table. Agreed to.

The house of deputies then adjourned, and being joined by the house of bishops resolved themselves into a board of missions. The secretary read the annual report of the secretary of the board of missions.

A Major Missing.

St. Louis, Oct. 8.—Ex-Mayor Henry A. Miller, of Belleville, Ill., about fifty years of age, disappeared Tuesday night and has not since been heard from. He has been afflicted with softening of the brain.

AN OUTRAGE.

A Democratic Meeting Stopped by Republicans in Huntington County.

HUNTINGTON, Oct. 8.—Hon. R. C. Pendleton, of Indianapolis, and O. W. Whitelock, a candidate for representative of Huntington county, held a democratic meeting at Macedonia, Union township, last evening. While Mr. Pendleton was engaged in his address, some sneaking, cowardly villain used a stone through the window, which struck one of the auditors, inflicting a dangerous wound on the head. Such manifestations only disprove the spirit of intolerance practiced by some of the usurpation followers of republicanism in Huntington county. Mr. Pendleton went to Fort Wayne and proposes to again return to hunt the villain down.

Earthquakes.

CHARLESTON, Oct. 8.—There were three more earthquake shocks at Summerville.

NEBRASKA.

The Democrats Put a Full State Ticket in the Field Out There.

LINCOLN, Neb., Oct. 8.—The democratic state convention nominated for governor, Jas. F. North; for lieutenant governor, C. P. Dolby; secretary of state, Richard Thompson; state treasurer, J. F. Hale; auditor of state, Thomas E. Singer; attorney general, W. L. Green; land commissioner, Thomas W. Smith; superintendent of public instruction, L. A. Cooley.

Weather Indications.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 8.—The weather indications are as follows:

Kentucky, fair weather, nearly stationary temperature.

Ohio, fair weather, nearly stationary temperature.

Indiana, fair weather and nearly stationary temperature.

Michigan, fair weather, slight changes in temperature.

Senator Pike Dead.

Boston, Oct. 8.—United States Senator Austin F. Pike died suddenly at Franklin Falls, N. Y., to-day.

Perry Lukens is now at Kansas City and is soliciting advertisements for Mr. W. R. Nelson's Star. Mr. Lukens will make his home in Kansas City.

LOCAL CHAT.

News Picked up in the Surrounding Villages.

Treasurer Johnson, of the state fair at Indianapolis, says that the entire receipts will be something over $25,000, $4,000 more than last year, and the largest amount taken in, probably, since the organization of the state board. It is noted that during the entire fair, there has not been reported a single case of pocket picking or robbery on the grounds, while last year there were fifty or more. In the $25,000 taken in was found only $3 in counterfeit money—a two and one-half dollar "gold" and a fifty cent lead piece.

Beginning with the year 1854 Judge Wm. S. Holman has made fourteen races for congress. In each of these contests he ran ahead of the state ticket—34 votes in 1854, 98 in '55, 9 in '60, 121 in '62, 53 in '65, 191 in '68, 617 in '70, 167 in '73, 1,245 in '74, 379 in '76, 434 in '78, 214 in '80, 330 in '82, and 191 in '84. A man who has been in public life for so many years, and yet runs 191 ahead of Thomas A. Hendricks, 416 ahead of Col. Norman Eldy, 379 ahead of Blue Jeans Williams, 218 ahead of Franklin Landers, and 191 ahead of Isaac P. Gray, must have a very strong hold upon the affections of his constituents.

At Lafayette, as John Short, whose brother Bill was, a few weeks ago, sent to the northern penitentiary for a series of robberies, was going to the depot to take a train for Chicago, he was nabbed by Lieutenant Ronald, of the police, and his wooden leg taken off. In it were found secreted a fine gold watch, a lady's costly necklace, three pairs of fine bracelets, five diamond rings, with other articles of jewelry and ornaments to the value of $1,500. These are supposed to be the goods his brother Bill stole this summer from the residence of Fred Shockey, and other parties, and which Bill, when the police were after him, turned over to John.

Lucius B. Swift, who has been making investigations of federal civil service in Indiana, made his report public yesterday. Special attention is paid to the Indianapolis postoffice, and he charges that Mr. Jones has never intended to honestly enforce the civil service laws; that while some of the appointees are good, though inexperienced, "there is a lot of party workers, with a considerable contingent of low word politicians, and a few are strikingly dishonest." Mr. Swift makes an attempt to prove the comparative inefficiency of the postal service in Indianapolis. Although Mr. Jones has had the force of carriers increased, there has been an increase in the number of letters advertised as compared with the same months in former years. Of the second-class postmasters in Indiana Mr. Swift finds fifteen of sixteen have been succeeded by democracy, and the number of employees have been increased. He further finds that in the internal revenue service removals have been made by the wholesale. Of fifty-six former incumbents, fifty-three have been succeeded by democrats. In conclusion, Mr. Swift says that the president's promise that the law should be enforced has been evaded; that the appointees to office have manipulated the local party machine, and that places have been given as booty by congressmen without regard to fitness.

ATONEMENT DAY.

The Hebrews to Observe One of Their Most Sacred Holidays.

The day of atonement begins this evening at sundown and continues until sundown Saturday evening. It is the most generally observed day by the Israelites of any in the entire year. The day is set apart by the Bible, the Old Testament, for the atonement of sins and is ordered as a day of fasting and prayer. Orthodox Israelites observe the day strictly by abstaining from food, water or liquids of any kind for the twenty-four hours. The so-called reform Israelites, or believers in the modern school of religion, do not observe the fast as strictly. Other observances of the day are left to the individuals and he may do whatever his conscience dictates. In Europe the day is more rigidly observed than in America, where the reform doctrines are most widely held. Business houses will close for the day, with perhaps few exceptions.

Facing Horse Killed.

WARREN, Ind., Oct. 8.—During the racing race at the tri-county fair in North Manchester, to-day, Sandy Pro, driven by Thomas Turner, collided with Hoosier Sam, driven by Jerome Wilcox. The sulkeys were wrecked and both men thrown several feet. Hoosier Sam was instantly killed. The animal was a valuable one, having a racing record of 2:22, and was owned by Wilcox, of Peru. The drivers were not seriously hurt.

HI THERE, CAPTAIN.

The Garrett Clipper and Butler Review Fly the Lowry Banner and Support Him Squarely.

The Garrett and other republican papers have announced with a great flourish of trumpets that the Garrett Clipper and Butler Review, together with a few less important democratic papers, were opposing Judge Lowry. The federal republican hopes decay and this week the Garrett Clipper holds the name of our next congressman, Judge Robert Lowry. It says:

"It's a contest between the two parties, not individuals."—Con. Gray.

Next week we will explain why we have made "a change of hearts." Being under the weather, with other matters interfering, we are not in a position to sing the faster this week.

We notice bills announcing public meetings by Hon. D. D. Moody, of Auburn.

Let every democrat go a straight ticket. The republicans "lug" us now, but after the election they'll have no use for any of us.

This is the time of year, when the leaves begin to fall, and "independent" newspapers of the baser sort, after a visit of the chairman of the finance committee, shed the thin disguise of non-partisanship and come out full fledged republican organs.

We are informed that the state and county central committees have invited W. H. Dills to enter the campaign and make speeches to his party. He has consented to look after the interests of the party in this county and make ten or twelve speeches if his court business will permit.

Although Gov. Gray did not mention Lowry in his speech, last Saturday, he presented some very strong arguments why democrats should vote the straight ticket. While Lowry's election is of some interest to himself, of course, it is of a great deal more importance to the party, its principles and future success, than any one else. It is acknowledged by Stanley advocates that Henry C. Stanley will not, and cannot be successful, consequently the only decision we can arrive at is—shall our next congressman be a democrat or a republican.

THE BUTLER REVIEW. The Butler Review also takes up the fight for Hon. Robert Lowry and is now flying his name at the mast head. One by one the props fall away from the tottering structure erected by the kinkers and when the ideas of November are here the opposition will be confined to very narrow limits.

Likewise Butler. The congressional fight in this district is now only a question as to the size of Lowry's majority. Some republicans place it as high as 3,000, more than two years ago.

THE DIAMOND.

The National League Championship Sure to Go to Chicago.

To-morrow ends the schedule for games to be played in the National league and not a little speculation is indulged in as to the possible result. The Chicago have two games to play with Boston, with a total of 89 won and 33 lost, while the Detroit have four games with the Philadelphia, with a total of 86 won and 34 lost. The result is almost certain to be in favor of Chicago, but if they should lose one game to Boston, and Detroit should be fortunate enough to win all four games from Philadelphia, the end would be a tie, or should Detroit lose one game to-day and Chicago win, the white stockings will carry the honors.

LOCAL LINES.

Joseph Todd and Frank Fee were at Indianapolis yesterday.

Mr. Carl P. Smith, the pleasant associated press reporter at the Western Union, is at home from his annual vacation.

The Bluffton Banner says: Mr. J. V. McTigue, of Fort Wayne, was in the city last Saturday.—Calvin Kerns, wife and daughter, of Fort Wayne, were in the city during the past week visiting relatives.

The remains of James L. Pfian will arrive this evening. The funeral will take place from the residence of his mother, 106 Williams street, Sunday afternoon at 1 o'clock. Interment at Prairie Grove chapel.

An excursion under the auspices of the Catholic Knights of America will go to Valparaiso on Sunday morning, Oct. 17, the train leaving the south depot at 6 a. m. The fare for the round trip has been placed at $2. Tickets can be had of any of the members.

The republicans continue to personally abuse and vilify Judge Lowry. Their ill-bred methods will not influence honest people, nor will they elevate the character of his opponents in the eyes of fair minded people. Judge Lowry is too well known and is with us too often to believe the brutal assertions of the republicans. Most slinging will increase Judge Lowry's majority, as certain as sunshine.

MORE ROBBERIES.

An Attempt to Burglarize a Grocery and a Horse Jockey Held Up for His Money.

Last night four men attempted to break into the grocery store of Celestin J. Jontian, out on the Maumee road. The work of the thieves was heard by a Mr. Canid, who lives above the grocery. He raised a window and asked what was wanted.

"None of your d—d business; are you a detective?" was the prompt reply. Mr. Canid fired at the fellows, just as the officers approached.

R. Maardt, a horse trader who makes his home with Tom Hunt, drove towards Roanoke this morning, via the Illinois road. Just as he crossed the Pittsburg road, west of here, two men approached and asked him for a ride. He responded to their request and was started when he arrived at the first forest to find a pistol and razor pulled on him. They made him drive into the woods and then they robbed him of $135, all the money he had. Jake Baltes drove along and the fleeing horse trader related his experience without much relief, as Mr. Baltes did not care to encounter the fleeing rascals.

DEMOCRATIC DOINGS.

How the Work Progresses and the Great Meetings Planned for the Cause.

The democratic party is getting right into line, and voters are utterly dismayed and disgusted with republican hypocrisy and pretense. Every where the opposition is unmasked and held up to ridicule when paid attorneys and their hirelings go out labeled "The People."

The Hon. J. M. Barrett and Mr. John Boulden address the people of Washington township at Seneca's school house to-night, and these big meetings are looked for to-morrow evening.

Mayaville, speakers, Col. I. B. McDonald and Hon. J. M. Barrett, Saturday, October 9, 7:30 p. m.

Hongland, speakers, Hon. E. F. Ithen and Judge S. M. Hensel, Saturday, October 9, 7:30 p. m.

Stiffin's school house, Perry township, speakers, J. M. Robinson, esq., and J. R. Hittinger, Saturday, October 9, 7:30 p. m.

Monroeville, speaker, Hon. R. C. Bell, Saturday, October 9, 7:30 p. m.

The state central committee has booked Hon. J. E. McDonald and Hon. R. C. Bell for the following meetings in this district:

Columbus City, Whitney county, October 11, evening.

Chillicothe, Whitlay county, October 11, evening.

Butler, Dekalb county, October 12, evening.

Waterloo, Dekalb county, October 12, evening.

Kendallville, Noble county, October 13, evening.

Garrett, Dekalb county, October 13, evening.

There is a good 10,000 democratic majority.

The election will occur three weeks from next Tuesday.

The republicans are running this campaign on a mere bluff.

The cause of labor never did and never will get relief or notice from the republican party or Senator Harrison.

They are not built that way.

The republican county convention wrenched an iron clad pledge from every legislative candidate to support their party and Monopolist Ben Harrison.

Democrats, what do you say to that exhibition of love for laboring men.

Twenty-thousand more union soldiers are employed in the pension bureau under a democratic administration than were to be found there under the republicans.

This is enough to quiet even Ben Harrison's apprehensions as to the old flag.

The civil service bill, commonly known as the "Pendleton bill," was written by George William Curtis, who submitted it to Senator Dawes and Edmunds, the latter of whom persuaded Senator Pendleton to offer it as his own.

In 1872 Senator Sherman was an honest reformer. The Honorable Sherman of to-day is not himself. The poison of the presidential bid has got into his system, and nothing by a national convention or a presidential election will help him.

The republicans are endeavoring to hide their iniquity and broken party loyalty under the "People's" mask.

Outside of politics men would not tolerate such traitors, who prate about principle, reform, etc., and then deny their political faith simply to enhance their chances of victory and appease their hunger for office.

Is their private circular making assistance and urging their workers to their almost infatigable, the republicans frankly admit that unless Indiana is carried for them this year their chances in 1893 are as good as lost. This is an admission they would not make were they not thoroughly alarmed. The nine thousand democratic votes in Allen county should take this proposition into thoughtful consideration.

True United States senate is the last fraction of political power left the republicans in the administration of national affairs. The indications are that Connecticut and New Jersey will elect two democrats, thus taking away from the republicans that number of votes in the senate. A hard fight will be made for another democratic senator in New York state, which, if successful, will still further reduce the republican majority. Indiana will elect a legislature that will send a democrat to the senate in place of General Benjamin Harrison, if the democrats do their whole duty. No one by one the roses will fall and fade away.

It is painful to learn that Senator Sherman does not approve of any of the acts of the present administration. He tells his hearers in Ohio that the democratic party is utterly unworthy to be entrusted with the affairs of government, and that the republican party is the only one able to cope with national questions as they arise. The plaintive and reproachful tone of his address leads to the inference that Senator Sherman thinks he might have done better had he been in President Cleveland's place. The melancholy fact remains, however, that he was chosen, and in all probability that he will never be given the opportunity of making the experiment. It is not strange that he should manifest a disgruntled spirit under the circumstances.

A FABLE.

Long ago in the year 1886 there lived an old party called Jefferson who owned and cultivated a fine estate called "Allen." Now Allen was a "splendidly cultivated estate, abounding in fine bridges, elegant houses, good roads and large work shops, and the old party called Jefferson had for many years been improving his estate to the extent of the revenue he derived from it, so as to make it both pleasant and profitable for his descendants to live in. There was upon a remote corner of this estate a young presumptuous lawyer, called Republican, who had often tried to persuade old Jefferson to let him manage the estate, promising that he would well take care of Jefferson as long as he lived. At last Jefferson consented that he would hand over the management of the estate to Republican, but this was only a pretense, yet Republican wisely boasted thereof before he got full possession.

Toward the close of the day, as the Old Party was smoking his pipe, Young Republican came up and said: "Old Party, that is a disgusting habit; I want you to quit it." Old Party said nothing, but went to the cupboard to take a nip of liquor, when Young Republican, emboldened by the Old Party's silence, again said: "Say, you Old Party, you must stop off on drinking. When I am master here I will have none of it." The Old Party plucking up the younger and inquired if he might have a little cold chicken for supper, when the Young Party foolishly rejoined: "Cold chicken is too expensive; codfish is good enough for you." The Old Party, it is said, drew up to November 4, 1888, asked if he could sleep in his house again, whereupon Republican exclaimed: "You can sleep on the floor to-night, but I give you warning to clear out in the morning."

As young Republican said this it was high noon the hour of closing the polls on November 4, 1886, old Jefferson thereupon arose, seized that young party by the collar, made his heels break his neck, threw him over the fence into outer darkness, and closed the door of Allen county against him forever—for great indeed was the strength remaining in that old arm.

Moral—Don't commence on the Old Party too soon in Allen.

COL. I. B. McDONALD

Pays His Respects to Hon. T. W. Blair and Accepts His Challenge.

PORT WAYNE, Ind., Oct. 4.

Col. I. B. McDonald, Hon. Candidate for Joint Senator.

DEAR SIR—Believing that the people should be fully informed of your false position in defending the large defalcation in the state treasury, and the outrageous proceedings of the state legislature and the management of the state institutions, and denying the rights of workmen to be represented in our law-making bodies, I respectfully challenge you to meet me in joint discussion of the issues before the people, at such times and places as the respective central committees of the counties of Allen and Whitley may arrange. I desire a fair, straightforward answer to this end at your earliest convenience.

Very respectfully yours,

T. W. BLAIR,

People's Candidate for Joint Senator Allen and Whitley counties.

Four Wayne, Ind., Oct. 5 '86.

THOMAS W. BLAIR, Rep. Candidate for Joint Senator, Port Wayne, Ind.

Sir—I am in receipt of your very discourteous letter of the 4th inst. I am constrained, at least for the present, not to take the proper notice of the insolence contained therein, leaving that duty to some future time and place. As the democratic candidate for joint senator I shall be pleased to be on hand promptly at such times and places as shall be arranged by Hon. Charles McCulloch, chairman of the Allen county democratic central committee.

Diphtheria is a terrible disease, requiring the greatest medical skill to effect a complete cure. Even when its power is broken, it clings to the patient with great persistency, and often leaves the system poisoned and prostrated. Just here Hood's Sassaaparilla does a vast amount of good, expelling impurities from the blood, giving it richness and vitality, while it renovates and strengthens the system.

Mahogany, Cherry, Maple, Birch, Oak And Ash Bed-room Suits!

Don't have all your Bed Room Suits of any one wood. Your Furniture will not be so pleasing to you. A variety of woods will make each more attractive. If you have one room Walnut, put another into Mahogany, Cherry, Oak or Ash.

Antique Oak or White Ash Bed Room Suits make the prettiest woods for a Bed Room trimmed in blue. Walnut should not be used.

The Foster Furniture and Carpet Co. carry the only full line in the city of Bed Room Suits, in all the different kinds of wood. They have, set up, and ready for inspection, a greater number of suits than all other Fort Wayne stores combined.

Mantle Cabinets.

Nothing adds so much to the elegant appearance of a parlor as one of these beautiful over Mantle, or Cabinets with glass. Step into our store and see them. They can be placed upon any mantle in your house without expense, except the cost of the Cabinet.

PARLOR SUITS

Do not mind that we manufacture our own Taylor Suits, and know in what manner they are made. Men, boys, we found out, from thorough experience, that suits bought by merchants ready made, are simply thrown together by boys and will not give satisfaction.

A. C. F. Weichmann attended the Kendallville fair.

Supt. and Mrs. P. S. O'Rourke attended the Kendallville fair yesterday.

Rev. Geo. G. Mitchell, of Bluffton, was tendered a warm welcome by his Indianapolis congregation.

P. S. O'Rourke will go to New York next Monday to attend the meeting of the railroad superintendents.

The new elevators of H. G. Thayer & Co., on the Wabash railway, will be painted with white and trimmed in red.

The Jacob shoe store will be closed on Saturday until 8 o'clock on account of holiday. Special cheap sale Saturday evening.

In the Wabash railroad telegraph system there are 37,000 miles of wire, and to operate the lines, batteries having an aggregate of 7,000 cells are required.

The eighth annual reunion of the 44th regiment, Indiana volunteers, will be held in Blou S. Bess G. A. R. Hall, at Fort Wayne, Wednesday, Oct. 13, 1886.

The beautiful moonlight nights that we are now having gives the young dude a chance to promenade with some other fellow's best girl, and as it is too cold for ice cream and too early for oyster stews, the dude's empty pocket-book cannot him no embarrassment when they pass a restaurant.

The Catholics of northern Indiana have for three days past been holding special meetings at Peru. Over eight hundred persons have received the holy communion. Sermons were delivered by Father Campion, of Logansport; Widow, of New Haven; Macman, of Fort Wayne; Moenck, of Plymouth, and Allenburg, of Columbia City. The meetings closed last night.

Dr. Barnett went to Waterloo yesterday to see the meigs.

To-morrow is pay day at Bass and Murray's foundries.

There was another big excursion to the Eaton gas well last night.

Henry Henschen, of Coombs & Co.'s hardware store, is seriously ill.

"IT PAYS TO DO SO."

$10.00 FEATURE!

The Most Complete Stock of Underwear, Gloves AND HOSIERY THAT CAN BE FOUND!

We have made men's overcoats and men's suits at the popular price of $10 a great feature with us this season. Of course, we have them higher or lower in price, but as this is a popular price we have made it our aim to see how good a suit or overcoat we can produce for $10. TEN DOLLARS. $10.

We have perhaps 15 styles of overcoats and suits to offer at that price and we feel safe in saying that you cannot find these goods elsewhere, nor can we promise them later in the season.
